Taking My Chances

The Outfield

Im calling out but theres no one to hear me
Im so afraid 'cos theres nobody near me
All that Ive got are the memories of Tuesday
I cant remember anything she saidThen in a moment my head starts spinnin'
Around in a circle, no end or beginnin'
An' just when I think that the whole worlds turnin'
I open my eyes an' discover that life is just burnin' downBut this man stands his ground
For when theres nothin' left Ill fight for every breathDont turn your back on me, baby
Im takin' all my chances
Why cant you hear what Im sayin'?
Im takin' all my chancesWhen youre alone with nobody to turn to
You look in the mirror an' think that its untrue
In your reflection are you sure that you see
The person that youve always wanted to beBut you never were because you feared yourself
An' in your deepest thoughts you looked for someone elseDont turn your back on me, baby
Im takin' all my chances
Why cant you hear what Im sayin'?
Im takin' all my chancesIm calling out but theres no one to hear me
Im so afraid 'cos theres nobody near me
All that Ive got are the memories of Tuesday
I cant remember anythin' she saidDont turn your back on me, baby
Im takin' all my chances
Why cant you hear what Im sayin'?
Im takin' all my chancesDont turn your back on me, baby
Im takin' all my chances
Why cant you hear what Im sayin'?
Im takin' all my chancesDont turn your back on me, baby
Im takin' all my chances
Im takin' all my chances
