Believer

Kate Ryan

When you're hurt you heal others
When you're in need you give
Because of you I am living
The most that I can live
Oh, sweet darling girl
I'm so glad you found me
Oh, sweet darling girl
Your power surrounds me
Remember me, don't forget me
I have something true
My path is dark, my steps uncertain
Unless I walk with you
Oh, sweet darling girl
I'm so glad you found me
Oh, sweet darling girl
Your power surrounds me
Your power, your power
Your power, oh surrounds me
You speak to me without speaking
You touch so I can feel
With your strength I am stronger
At last I know I'm real
Oh, sweet darling girl
I'm so glad you found me
Oh, sweet darling girl
Your power surrounds me
Your power, your power
Your power, oh
Oh sweet darling girl, oh sweet darling girl
Oh sweet darling girl
I'm so glad that you found me
I'm so glad that you found me
I'm so glad that you found me, yeah
Ooh you found me, yeah you did
And your power surrounds me, come on, yeah
You found me, oh yeah, yeah
