

Apart from You

Reality Check

In the rear view mirror, I now see
That I can't run away from, your love for me
Is there any other way, apart from you
No matter what I do, I can't escape the truth?
Your strength can get me through, yeah?
I know that I'd never survive
The whole of me would soon subside
Nothing else matters that I do
Apart from you, you
I need direction and I know
That I can't make these changes on my own
Is there any other way, apart from you
No matter what I do, I can't escape the truth?
Is there any other way, apart from you
Your strength can get me through, yeah?
I know that I'd never survive
The whole of me would soon subside
Nothing else matters that I do
Apart from you, you
Apart from you
I know that I'd never survive
The whole of me would soon subside
Nothing else matters that I do
Apart from you, you
I know that I'd never survive
The whole of me would soon subside
Nothing else matters that I do
Apart from you, you
Apart from you, apart from you
Apart from you, apart from you
Nothing else matters that I do
Apart from you, apart from you
