

Buried in Lies

Truth Before Treason

I've arrived to the answers
I'll reclaim the throne
Your tyranny ends - six feet down's your new home
I see the fear in your eyes growing stronger
(and then) I slip into madness and lose all control
I'll show no mercy when cleansing your soul
The rise, the fall - we've lived through it all

(Chorus) I'll throw it all away
Change your existence into pain
When power turns to madness
What is left to gain?
I will find the truth buried in your lies
And I will show you what it's like to die on the inside

You act on aggression
You show no restraint
You now embody the things that you hate
Your grand design has passed its prime
We'll rise up against you - surrender or die
Your hatred won't save you as we unify
Your rise, your fall - you'll live through it all

(Chorus)

Rise...

(Chorus)

Come and take what's mine from me
And I will destroy the crime
And leave you in pieces
