Matryoshka

Ubyk

Promises broken & splitting in half all that I want, is something I had fell to the bottom when you cry, it's alright, it's alright reach out for nothing, but nothing is there slips through your fingers and into thin Air time at the bottom when your down

It's alright, It's alright

and for a while I soar above all the clouds
I'm going up, I'll see you on the way down
don't be too long I'm floating up folding time trying to keep up with the sun don't wake me

tiny red petals and big gaping eyes trying to hold on but there's too many sides solid inside her when you lie

I soar above all the clouds
on the way down
floating up foding time higher and higher floating up higher and higher and..
