The Pyre

Edge Of Haze

Smoldering grass
Noxious fumes
Smoke smothers the cityTrying to hold my breath
The vapor hurts in the lungs
Exhaling causes vertigoAt the scenery of the end of days
I stare at the haunt of oblivion
Vacant spheres filled with smoke
Buildings burn as far I can seeI run forth behind thoughtRush and run â€¨
The city is burning down
And absolutely nothing is left
I watch this play of agony
Incapable to play my roleThe echoing walls inhale
The smoke-stained stench of our grave
Within the pyre we become undoneThe towers ablazeâ€¨
As the circle completesâ€¨
The days had a limit â€¨Ignite the barren souls â€¨Before they comprehend â€¨The pyre burns tonight â€¨â€¨A force overwhelming â€¨Crushes the cattleâ€¨
There was no warningâ€¨
As the drug deafensâ€¨
Before it fades
â€¨The plot comes to its endThe daze lapsed in my head
A withering while Realization of concealingAt the scenery of the end of days
I stared at the haunt of oblivion
Now I am awake watching outsideâ€¨It is grey
As grey as it used to beIn the dream my city was burning down
And absolutely nothing was left
I watched this play of agony
In the dream
