Verse1
Say yeah homie, im so tired of living in this city with all this cash, yeah homie.
So many rich people are chilling, shopping Euro's, Pounds, million dollars with young ladies(yeah homie.)
ive been running things on my own ever since my 19th.
But not because i like it.
But its just for my life, yeah homie.
Tell me what is my benefit if i finish all this cash alone .
Because i know 1 day ill die.
Baby and leave all this cash behind .
I dont wanna do this (X2)
I dont want to leave all this cash, not that im still alive.
I want to eat all this cash with all of my people .
We roll from ghetto to V.I.P.
Baby from ghetto to V.I.P.
Mama this is how we roll.
This is how we roll.
We are ready to flow on steady.
We are ready to blow on steady.
Yeah homie let us roll on.

Hook2
I said yeah, yeah homie(X2)
Im tired of living in this city with all this cash.(X2)
(X2)
Verse2(BLACQ)
They wanna see us dying on the floor like were choking on our words.
So promise that we aint going to lie no more.
Still trying to say we aint getting high no more.
So i roll it up just to touch the sky some more.
Life aint fair enough so weve gotta drink some more.
Now they say yo BLACQ! why have you gotta think so hard?
Because i was brought up hard like the grace of God.
Trying to get my money up to pay the court.
Niggas talking shit, maine say no more.

Because your dead, with your brains as its lying on the floor.
And im so sick of running fucking game on yall'.
