

Old Soul Song (for The New World Order)

Bright Eyes

Grey like new day leaks through the window
And some old song comes on the alarm clock radio
 We walk the forty blocks to the middle
 Of the place we heard that everything would be
 And there were barricades to keep us off the street
 But the crowd kept pushing forward
 Till they swallowed the police
 Yeah, they went wild, yeah, they went wild
 Yeah, they went wild, yeah, they went wild
 We left before the dust had time to settle
 And all the broken glass swept off the avenue
 And all the way home held your camera like a Bible
 Just wishing so bad that it held some kind of truth
 And I stood nervous next to you in the dark room
 You dropped the paper in my water
 And it all begins to bloom
 Yeah, they go wild, yeah, they go wild
 Yeah, they go wild, yeah, they go wild
 And just when I get so lonesome I can't speak
 I see some flowers on a hill side
 Like a wall of new TV's
 Yeah, they go wild, yeah, they go wild
 Yeah, they go wild, yeah, they go wild
 Yeah, they go wild, yeah, they go wild
 Yeah, they go wild, yeah, they go wild
