

Face (feat. Denitia and Sene)

Christian Rich

If it was that simple
Every morning there'd be roses by your window
Every evening there'd be sweatin' in our bedroom
Tell me why you wanna live your life in limbo
Now tell me 'bout your nine to five
You can even tell me lies
I'll give you half my closet space
You can even choose your side
Hope you come, hope you come
Hope you come, hope you come
If you were a model and hated beaches
I'd move you to Chicago, dead of winter
Making angels with our eyes closed
Tell me everything you wanna do tomorrow
But tell me what you want tonight
Tell me all your wants in life
You can take up half my bed
You can even choose your side
Just don't leave me out
Especially when you're the one i care about
More than anybody seems to care about me
let's go half in life
I don't need so many things to myself
I've been going through some things you can help
Hope you come, hope you come
Hope you come, hope you come
If it was that simple
Every morning there'd be roses by your window
Every evening there'd be sweatin' in your bedroom
Tell me why you wanna live your life in limbo
Tell me 'bout your nine to five
You can even tell me lies
I'll give you half my closet space
You can even choose your side
Hope you come hope you come
Hope you come hope you come
Just don't leave me out
Especially when you're the one I care about
More than anybody seems to care about me

Let's go half in life
I don't need so many things to myself
I've been going through some things you can help
Hope you come, hope you come
