

A Night To Remember

JJ Grey & Mofro

Well I seen her standing there with her hands on her hips She had this sassy look about her but a stiff upper lip She was as beautiful as she could be taking a drag off a cigarette A leather jacket that said ah boy I'll whup your ass ah yeah right then I started to sweat Well our eyes they finally met and I wouldn't let 'em go I wonder who she is hot damn I got to know A little cat and mouse, boy let the bottle spin she flicked some ashes straight my way let the games begin It's going to be a night, a night to remember It's going to be a night, a night we won't forget Well I walked up and said what I had to say then she looked at me like I was a fool But I wasn't about to give it all away just yet so I laid up and tried to play it real cool I flipped up my collar ah man I went ahead and put on my best James Dean and you'd a thought I was Clark Gable squinting through that smoke Ah baby up on the big screen Well I moved a little closer Close as I could dare
I can feel her breathing now
I can smell her hair
She turned around and lit me with them burning eyes Ah she got me hypnotized
I ain't going to lie
It's going to be a night, a night to remember It's going to be a night, a night we won't forget Well she looked at me like she was none too impressed and I guess that was my cue to hit the road That's when I tripped over my own shoes Yeah I went sprawling out across the dance floor Then she finally let her guard down Looked at me and smiled
There's no need to rush now Hangout for a while Hey there Mr. DJ

Spin another song

I'm going to do the best I can even if it's wrong baby It's going to be a night, a night to remember

It's going to be a night, a night we won't forget

It's going to be a night, a night to remember

Going To be a night, a night, a night, a night we won't forget
