

Eleutheria

Lenny Kravitz

My life is perfect, because I accept it as it is
The sunshine is a-shining, because it is what it is What a beautiful feeling it's bringing in
All the birds in the sky are singingEleutheria
The fire is burning
Eleutheria
The tables are turningA new day is dawning, because it is time for a change
With new consciousness forming, there comes a new day
Oh we got to, got to keep on trying
When the children are cold and alone and are crying
You got to understandEleutheria
The bells are ringing
Eleutheria
The people are singing
Eleutheria
People are yearning
Eleutheria
This world keeps on turning
TurningWhat a beautiful feeling it's bringing in
All the birds in the sky are singing
You got to understandEleutheria
The fire is burning
Eleutheria
The tables are turning
Eleutheria
The bells are ringingThe people keep singing
The fire is burning
The tables are turning
Got to keep on, keep on, keeping on
