Unspoken

Pentagram

UNSPOKENThere's nothing to do at all
There's only to be
There's nothing to show
There's only to see
Now here, nowhere
The truth is unspoken
You are alone
You've got something to prove
You are alone
You've got something to lose
Now here, nowhere
The truth is unspoken
There's nothing to do
There's only to be
There's nothing to lose
There's only to feel
All one, alone
The truth is unspoken
