How Am I Meant To Know

Tom Vek

You call summer fence
You didn't think before you spoke
I can't get off this high chair
Just can't stop the steam once I get startedYou've broken a seal
What will they think of me
This sacrifice isn't enough
I need to justify everything I doInsistence isn't a virtue
Not everyone is a lesser being
How can I make sense of this situation
After everything you've done for me
I know its not fair
Just sitting on the fence
Not committing to anything
I'm a simple animal
