Affected

Nik Freitas

I feel you looking at me
Thinking that my happiness
Is just a front and I still want you
Like I did back then
You walk around this town like
You're somebody's king
But baby trust me there ain't nothing that could Make me hungry for you again
I'm not affected, you've been rejected
Written off my heart
There is no debt here to be collected
I don't want no part
How many times do I have to say it?
You used to be smart
I'm not affected, you've been rejected
And I don't want no more
You used to walk and I got weak
I used to tremble from your speech
You used to get up in my head
When you crawled into my bed
You had me thinking stupidly
Like you and I would someday be
But that's just it baby
I'm not affected by you baby
I'm not affected, you've been rejected

Written off my heart
There is no debt here to be collected
I don't want no part
How many times do I have to say it?
You used to be smart
I'm not affected
And I don't want no more
I'm not affected, you've been rejected
Written off my heart
There is no debt here to be collected
I don't want no part
How many times do I have to say it?
You used to be smart

You don't make or break me baby
I've become immune to you
I'm not affected, you've been rejected
Written off my heart
There is no debt here to be collected
I don't want no part
How many times do I have to say it?
You used to be smart
I feel you looking at me
Thinking that my happiness
Is just a front and I still want you
Like I did back then
