Things I'm Gonna Do

Rasputina

Against the law to talk about
The rocket in the park
I send it off to be examined by a scientific team
On the moon, on the moon, on the moon, on the moonI organize a council where the prize goes unannounced until there's
In the trees a city
Just some leave, we left them pretty
Long ago, long ago, long ago oh so long agoI have half a mind it's cracked and breaking
It's recommended as great for tasting
Spit in the face of the tried and true one
These are things that I'm gonna doMy cave is lit with tiny lights
I climb the stairs and catch the sights
Of other people far below
I've heard of them they think they knowI make no friends, I've got no spark
In my defense I take apart
What's put together easily
This is all true, I'll make it beEveryday like Jesus
He's not up there he can't see us
Maybe eyes uplifted slowly for effect the land below me
Far away, far away, far away oh so far awayI have half a mind, it's cracked and breaking
It's recommended as great for tasting
Spit in the face of the tried and true one
These are things that I'm gonna doI make no friends, I've got no spark
In my defense I take apart
What's put together easily
This is all true, I'll make it beI have half a mind, it's cracked and breaking
It's recommended as great for tasting
Spit in the face of the tried and true one
These are things that I'm gonna do
