My Room (Acoustic Version) [Bonus Track]

Before the Dawn

once I made my monsters die I can rest my thoughts tonight this what seems to be wrong is right once I made my monsters diethis my friend is to be last of times when I meaning you step aside just to see...reasons selfish thoughts become the needs, prepair what needed to be like new and many times I needed youonce I made my monsters die
I can rest my thoughts tonight this what seems to be all wrong is right once I made my monsters diein my room within my home in my room within my homestep inside in to my room, seems like ages I have waited you one more time in this room...like friends moments past a thousand times, we stood still frozen from the lies moments past and now it's timein my room within my home in my room within my home
