

Music That Will Lift Me

Rich Robinson

You got me running in a feeling, don't know when or where it came

It takes a clear understanding of this ethereal plane

As I look ahead and wonder what's left to feel

I'm sick and tired of all the waiting the next turn of the wheel

It's the music that will lift me above the pain I feel

Is it any wonder with all the beauty I heal

It heals the wound hardened from my life

For it's the music that will lift me and take away this fight

As I come into your headlights of your gaze so sweet

When it shines upon me it takes away my grief

Buried so deep for all these years

Pulls the poison from me and dries up all my tears

For it's the music that will lift me above the pain I feel

Is it any wonder with all the beauty I heal

It heals the wound hardened from my life

For it's the music that will lift me and take away this fight

For it's the music that will lift me above the pain I feel

Is it any wonder with all the beauty I heal

For it's the music that will lift me above the pain I feel

Is it any wonder with all the beauty I heal

It heals the wound hardened from my life

For it's the music that will lift me and take away this fight
