Like You

MONORAL

You hide your gain
You lie but don't know why
These voices in your head
Never seem to get you wellI'm like you
I'm just like youYou rise to fall
Your hatred keeps you safe
The smoke is on your face
Seems to put you back in placeI'm like you
I'm just like youTake what's yours
All you need is mine
As you fall into this fire
I'm trying not to
Take your time
All you hate is mine
As you fall into this fire
I'm so much like youI'm like you
I'm just like youTake what's yours
All you need is mine
As you fall into this fire
I'm trying not to
Take your time
All you hate is mine
As you fall into this fire
I'm so much like you
