Fastway

My, my said the beggar man
What you give and what you take
Are two different things Eat up what you've got Evil winds that drag your bones to rot
Evil winds that'll set, set me free Suicide of the first division
Found dead with a noose wrapped around your head
No one cared to raise an eye
Don't it make you wanna' scream, scream till they cry Evil winds that'll set, set me free Please brother can you spare me a dime
To buy some bread and a bottle of wine
I'll never ask for anything again
Just help me, help me to survive Evil winds that'll set, set me free Please brother can you spare me a dime
To buy some bread and a bottle of wine
I'll never ask for anything again
Just help me make it through the
Help me make it through
Help me make it through
Help me make it through
Make it through the night High tide, like a wishing well
The thoughts of Balrog flowing through my head
Please time won't you take me back
To the lands and paths
From whence I came
From where I came Evil winds that'll set, set me free
