

Steal Me Away

Ana Popovic

(a.popovic)

ana popovic music pubushing -ascap delta groov'e productions pubushing -ascapi saw you coming right through that door didn't ask you why you're here or who you're looking for are you passing by or are you here to stay i said: oh you're just on time to steal me awayhow fast could we run and not leave a trace burglar alarms will echo through this lonesome place soon they will contain what they'll need to facemiraculous disappearance in time to close the casesome will cheer while other will stare question: is there more to this than just an affair i can't read the future, but i can feel the thrill there's no such permission to betray but there's license to steal
