Scarlet Beautiful

The Beloved

Scarlet beautiful, with your eyes so blue
Got to tell you that I'm in love with you
My angel, innocent saint
Innocent maybe, but angel you ain'tNo, oh it just gets better each timeWell, scarlet beautiful, my guiding light
Invisible on a cloudless night
One kiss and you're in for the kill
Oh, just hold me, do what you willI know it just gets better each time
Oh, it just gets better each timeOh, it's just love, love, love, love, love
It makes you smile, it makes you strong
Just love, love, love, love, love
It feels so good it can't be wrong
It's just love, love, love, love, love
Holding onScarlet beautiful, heaven can wait
I can feel it, oh it feels great
See the stars explode as they cross the sky
It's beautiful, we kiss goodbyeOh, it just gets better each time
Oh, it just gets better each timeYeah, must be love, love, love, love, love
It makes you smile, it makes you strong
Love, love, love, love, love
Oh, feels so good it can't be wrongLove, love, love, love, love
Twice as nice, oh twice as long
It's just love, love, love, love, love
Holding onLove, love, love, love, love
Love, love, love, love, loveOh, it's just love, love, love, love, love
It makes you smile, it makes you strong
Love, love, love, love, love
Feels so good it can't be wrongLove, love, love, love, love
Twice as nice, oh twice as long
Just love, love, love, love, love
It's holding onSweet love, love, love, love, love
Sweet loveOh, it's beautiful
Oh, it's beautiful
Oh, it's beautiful
