

Losing It

Remissions

all we ever did was move around i was always the new kid never the cool kid
all i ever wanted to do was to fall in love just to be in love
    but my heart was racing my mind was screaming
"you've got your whole life to do these things"
    but my legs were shaking
    my hands were searching for her in the backseat of my car
    i just lost it
    and i can't believe it

i knew i was only 16
but i thought i loved her and it'd last forever only if i knew that she wasn't true
how could she do this to me?
    my heart was racing
    [ooohhh....]
