Lady Angel

Scott Dawson

When the sun goes down and the moon is high I'm lying on my bed
staring at the sky
Heavy are my eyes
I won't let them sleep
Gonna fall in love
Gonna fall in deep

Lady Angel
Eyes of blue and wings of white
Lady Angel
Won't you comfort me tonight

Been away so long
Still I long for you
No matter how I try
There's nothing I can do
Searching for your love
In the dead of night
Then from a heavenly dove
Comes a heavenly sight

Lady Angel
Eyes of blue and wings of white
Lady Angel
Won't you comfort me tonight

Ooh I want to kiss you
Ooh I want to kiss you and make you my own
Ooh I'm gonna miss you
How I'm gonna miss you when the morning come
