

Missin' You

The Summer Set

Woke up in living color
The city turned from grey to gold
Sleeping with your shadow
But now I'm shaking off your ghost
So no more wasted days
Addicted to your face
Now I don't want you and I don't need you anymore Give me back my records
Throw our memories in the trash
You can keep the sweater
Don't think I ever want it back
You let the stitches break
Now it don't feel the same
Now I don't want you and I don't need you anymore (Hey) feels like I'm finally living more than ever
(Hey) since you've been gone I've never felt so alive
(Hell yeah, alright, I ain't missin' you)
(Hey) just give me every drink and every number
(Hey) you know I'm only getting better at night
(Hell yeah, alright, I ain't missin' you) There's no bad blood between us
The worst of us is in the past
I'm finally moving forward
Just know I'll always have your back
Heard you're doing great
I'm in a better place
Now I don't want you and I don't need you anymore (Hey) feels like I'm finally living more than ever
(Hey) since you've been gone I've never felt so alive
(Hell yeah, alright, I ain't missin' you)
(Hey) just give me every drink and every number
(Hey) you know I'm only getting better at night
(Hell yeah, alright, I ain't missin' you) (Hey) I ain't missin' you
(Hey) I ain't missin' you
(Hell yeah, alright, I ain't missin' you) (Hey)
I don't want you, no I don't need you
I don't want you, no I don't need you
I don't want you, no I don't need you
I don't want you, no (Hey) feels like I'm finally living more than ever
(Hey) since you've been gone I've never felt so alive
(Hell yeah, alright, I ain't missin' you)
(Hey) just give me every drink and every number
(Hey) you know I'm only getting better at night

(Hell yeah, alright, I ain't missin' you)(Hey) I ain't missin' you
(Hey) I ain't missin' you
(Hell yeah, alright, I ain't missin' you)
(Hell yeah, alright)
(Hell yeah, alright, I ain't missin' you)
