It Only Took a Minute

Rachelle Ferrell

The summer is almost over and I havent met him yet
I sit here all alone, right by the phone
Who would ever guess?With my heart as big as the ocean
And with all this love to share
Couldnt find someone right to light up my life
But then I saw you standing there
Dont you know that?It only took a minute
The moment I looked in your eyes
It only took a minute
To see all those love signs
Id never thought Id findI cant believe how you touch me
Youre like a breeze blowing through my hair
I get a rush when you tell me to hush
And you take me thereYoure my morning coffee
And baby, Im your easy chair
Theres no way this could be a love fantasy
When I know weve got the real affair and even thoughIt only took a minute
The moment I looked in your eyes
It only took a minute
To see all those love signs
Id never thought Id findIm caught up in it
Im caught up
All at once I knew inside, yeahIt only took a minute
Youre the love of, youre the love of Youre the love of my lifeOoh, I love you
I love you baby
Youre the one for meOoh, you know I thought it was over
Cause nobody would come my way
The door to love that I almost closed
Was the same door you opened today
Oh, oh, ohOnly took a minute
Only took a minute
It only took a minute
Only took a minute
Only took a minute
Only took a minute
Only took a minute
