Darlin'

Dante Bowe

Hey Darlinâ€™
I ainâ€™t never seen a smile like that
The way it lights up this room
Youâ€™re a dream come true
And itâ€™s only the beginning

And I love the way your hair curls
When you let it hang below your shoulders
I thought that I should let you know
And either way youâ€™re beautiful
To me

And just like the sun keeps its promise to rise
I promise to love you for the rest of my life
And just like the bird hums a song in the spring
Iâ€™m captured by your symphony
Hey darlinâ€™ Just you wait and see

I think itâ€™s funny when you catch me staring at you
But whatâ€™s a man supposed to do but sit back and enjoy the view And think man how did I get so lucky
Some people say there is no God
I know heâ€™s real
Cuz we had a conversation
We made a deal
That if he lended you to me Iâ€™d love you like his church
Sickness or health better or worse

Aaand... just like the sun keeps its promise to rise
I promise to love you for the rest of my life
And just like the bird hums a song in the spring
Iâ€™m captured by your symphony
Hey darlinâ€™ Just you wait and Seeee (x4)
