

Bumps Ahead

Drumfish

Ive got to realign you cuz my heads above water
You got a little sister and shes somebodys daughter
She says theres an orange man hanging from a telephone wire
But you cant trust your sister cuz your sisters a liar so she says
Look out bumps aheadThe man in the mirrors got ultimate whiskers
And he like to shave them with his bony little fingers
He got some ear drops and he paints em on his eyebrows
But he dont like to do it cuz it covers up the brown spots on his head
Look out(Chorus) What am I gonna do
I dont even like you
How am I supposed to choose
Entirely up to
Everything around me moves
I dont even see through youYouve got to trust the green book it was written by your sister
Tells a little story of a man without any pictures
He got an eagle in his pocket and a horse tooth comb in his hair
But horse teeth dont work very well so the comb dont work at all but he dont care
Look out(Chorus)I met a cow today swinging udder while he walked his walk
Getting high on the grass and sun
Spotted coat of brown and black
Heat and flies burned on his back
He was a supermodel bovine of the sun(Chorus)Ive got to realign you cuz youve got a little sister
The man with the portraits hanging whiskers from his mirror
The bovine slips and bumps his head
Look out bumps ahead
