

I'm A Woman, Too

Ben Lee

It's true, it's true, I'm a woman too
I move with the flow of the seasons
I do, I do 'cause I'm a woman too
I don't make sense but I got my reasons
So hear me roar, I will not be ignored
If you've ever had to fight you're a sister of mine
If your heart's got something to prove then you're a woman too
It's here, it's clear this world can be unfair
There's always someone being kept down
It's true, it's true 'cause I'm a woman too
Try to shut me up and I'm gonna get loud
Hear me roar, I will not be ignored
If you've ever had to fight you're a sister of mine
If your heart's got something to prove then you're a woman too
You're a woman too
The African, he's a woman too
The American, he's a woman too
The Palestinian, he's a woman too
The Jew, he's a woman too
The freedom fighter, he's a woman too
The Messiah, he's a woman too
This planet, it's a woman too
And you, you're a woman too
You're a woman too, you're a woman too
So hear me roar, I will not be ignored
If you've ever had to fight you're a sister of mine
If your heart's got something to prove
And hear me roar, I will not be ignored
If you've ever had to fight you're a sister of mine
If your heart's got something to prove then you're a woman too
You're a woman too and I'm a woman too, yeah I'm a woman too
