The Night

Soft Cell

Beware of his promise
Believe what I say
Before I go forever
Be sure of what you saySo he paints a pretty picture
And he tells you that he needs you
And he covers you with flowers
And he always keeps you dreamingIf he always keeps you dreaming
You won't have a lonely hour
If a day could last forever
You might like your ivory towerBut the night begins to turn your head around
And you know you're gonna lose more than you found
Yeah the night begins to turn your head aroundBeware of his promise
Believe what I say
Before I go forever
Be sure of what you sayFor the words may come too easy
If you don't believe I'm leaving
And goodbye will come too quickly
If you really think he loves youIf you really think he loves you
You would give your love so sweetly
If that day could last forever
You would fall in love completelyBut the night begins to turn your head around
And you know you're gonna lose more than you found
Yeah the night begins to turn your head aroundBut the night begins to turn your head around
And you know you're gonna lose more than you found
Yeah the night begins to turn your head around
And you know you're gonna lose more than you foundOh the night begins to turn your head around
Yeah the night, the night, the night, the night, the night, the night
Yeah the night, the night, the night, the night, the night, the night
Oh the night begins to turn your head around
