

How Does It Feel

Westlife

True lovers never take it slowly
When they've found the one and only
Nothing can replace this feeling
Knowing someone loves you It's painted with the pain and glory
Taking from a known sad story
Laying out my life before me
Fearing the unknown Sharing never showed me much appeal
And now I'm only praying it's for real So how does it feel?
When I hold you in my arms
And you're lying next to me
Never wanting you to leave
Until I'll tell you how it feels To be cradled like my dreams
And to know that you love me
No more wasting time in asking other people
How does it feel?
How does it feel? Forever taken you for granted
You give me everything I wanted
I'm so afraid that I might lose you
But time will let us see If everything is real I'm feeling
Well, maybe we've been only dreaming
And if it's gonna die to save it
'Cos baby, I believe Nothing in the world could make it right
'Cos baby, loving you brings me to life And how does it feel?
When I hold you in my arms
And you're lying next to me
Never wanting you to leave
Until I'll tell you how it feels To be cradled like my dreams
And to know that you love me
No more wasting time in asking other people
How does it feel? Nothing in the world could feel this right
'Cos baby, you're the best thing in my life How does it feel?
When I hold you in my arms
And you're lying next to me
Never wanting you to leave
Until I'll tell you how it feels To be cradled like my dreams
And to know that you love me
No more wasting time in asking other people
How does it feel?
