

Time of Our Lives

Paul van Dyk

There's a time for us to let go
There's a time for holding on
A time to speak, a time to listen
There's a time for us to grow There's a time for laying low down
There's a time for getting high
A time for peace, a time for fighting
A time to live, a time to die A time to scream, a time for silence
A time for truth against the lies
A time for faith, a time for science
There's a time for us to shine There is a time for make believing
There's a time to understand
A time for hurt, a time for healing
A time to run to make a stand
