Tears May Fall (1992 Remix)

TKA

Hey girl, this love affair that we got going has me so confused
My temperature is quickly growing
I believe it's true that this casual affair has turned to love
And girl, I know just what you're feeling and I think it's plain to seeYou got my senses reeling, tell me could this really be
That this casual affair has turned to love
So now, we must be careful 'cause the danger waits nearby
The game of love's a gamble and the stakes are much to highTears may fall, tears may fall from your eyes
Tears may fall, tears may fall from your eyes
Tears may fall, tears may fall from your eyes
Tears may fall, tears may fall from your eyesHey girl, my emotions are exploding and I just may lose control
I feel like I am floating, you got me body and soul
Never meant for you and I to fall in love
And girl, we didn't want to fall but love has happened anywayThe writing's on the wall, so let's just take it day by day
Don't deny it, try to hide, we're in love
So now, we must be careful 'cause the danger waits nearby
The game of loves a gamble and the stakes are much to highTears may fall, tears may fall from your eyes
Tears may fall, tears may fall from your eyes
Tears may fall, tears may fall from your eyes
Tears may fall, tears may fall from your eyesSee what's happening, I knew we were taking chances
And we promised never to fall in love
Now, we can never be together, we both got commitments
And it hurts so much to know that tears may fall from your eyesTears may fall, tears may fall from your eyes
Tears may fall, tears may fall from your eyes
Tears may fall, tears may fall from your eyes
Tears may fall, tears may fall from your eyesTears may fall, tears may fall from your eyes
Tears may fall, tears may fall from your eyes
Tears may fall, tears may fall from your eyes
Tears may fall, tears may fall from your eyesI feel the tears keep falling down from my eyes
And I don't understand the reason why
I feel the tears keep falling down from my eyes
And I don't understand the reason whyI feel the tears keep falling down from my eyes
And I don't understand the reason why
I feel the tears keep falling down from my eyes
And I don't understand the reason whyTears may fall, tears may fall from your eyes
Tears may fall, tears may fall from your eyes
Tears may fall, tears may fall from your eyes

Tears may fall, tears may fall from your eyes
