Whispering Grass

Sandy Denny

Why do you whisper, green grass?
Why tell the trees what ain't so?
Whispering grass
The trees don't have to knowWhy tell them all your secrets?
Who kissed there long ago?
Whispering grass
The trees don't need to knowDon't you tell it to the breeze
'Cos she will tell the birds and bees
And everyone will know
Because you told them once beforeYes, you told them once before
It's no secret anymoreWhy tell them all the old things?
They're buried under the snow
Whispering grass, don't tell the trees
'Cos the trees don't need to know?Now don't you tell it to the breeze
'Cos she will tell the birds and bees
And everyone will know
Because you told them once beforeYes, you told them once before
It's no secret anymoreWhy tell them all the old things?
They're buried under the snow
Whispering grass, don't tell the trees
'Cos the trees don't need to know
