She's Dope

Down With Webster

I don't smoke girl, oh
But you're dope girl, oh
I don't drink babe, oh
But you're tanqueray, yeah, yeah
Now I know I'm not the only one who be checking you out
But I see plenty of fine girls and don't open my mouth
I know your momma don't like me and what I'm about
I'm always trying to do what's right it just don't work out
We go to all the same parties and you don't know me name
It's probably 'cause I never won a damn football game
But I'm honest yeah; you gotta put me on this, yeah
I try to tell you what you want to hear, but I'm wrong
And I probably won't amount to much but this song
You're saying that I'm out of your league
But what's a little white lie to me?
I don't smoke girl, oh
But you're dope girl, oh
I don't drink babe, oh
But you're tanqueray, yeah, yeah
You're not what I'm used to, far from usual
'Cause being dopes much better than being beautiful
And I'm not even worried about other guys pursuing you

'Cause girl, you're a star, attention is nothing new to you
Oh ain't I innocent?
Not even a little bit
The bottle at the booth ain't mine girl, finish it
You know all the nice spots, I know all the blemishes
I'm just being honest, ain't that better than a gentleman?
I try to tell you what you want to hear, but I'm wrong
And I probably won't amount to much but this song
You're saying that I'm out of your league
But what's a little white lie to me?
I don't smoke girl, oh
But you're dope girl, oh
I don't drink babe, oh
But you're tanqueray, yeah, yeah
I'll break the rules, I know girl won't change for you, you're dope girl

I'll face the news, don't go girl won't change for you, but you're dope girl
I don't smoke girl, oh
But you're dope girl, oh
I don't drink babe, oh
But you're tanqueray, yeah, yeah
