

Sunbeam Special

Billy Joe Shaver

Back in my memory, a special little place
A country boy stands with a smile on his face
Watching all the people in the passenger car
Wonder if he'd ever get a chance to go that farSunbeam Special spinin' round the den
Waking up memories of my childhood again
Taking me to places I never have been
Sunbeam Special, I'm holding the blameHiggy Boss is goin' a-chasing his tail
He's up and at the barking, raising all kinds of hell
Good God almighty candy-bared the door
Rat along the windows, shook the hell out of the floorSunbeam Special spinin' round the den
Waking up memories of my childhood again
Taking me to places I never have been
Sunbeam Special, I'm holding the blameHow Quicksy out sat(?) on the railroad track Sunflowers bent and swayed all the way back
Critters in the tall grass went running for their life
Sunbeam special disappeared in the nightSunbeam Special spinin' round the den
Waking up memories of my childhood again
Taking me to places I never have been
Sunbeam Special, I'm holding the blame

Songwriters

NICHOLSON, GARY / SHAVER, BILLY JOEPublished by

Lyrics Â© Sony/ATV Music Publishing LLC

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>