Bleed

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

You're not listening
So why should I talk to you?
Why should I understand?
Why should I follow through?Out of luck, out of time
Out of hopelessness
And sleepless nights aheadNot asking for this strange situation
Not asking for this trite vaccination
Not asking for this genius complication
Are you loving or leaving or lying
Or dying away, oh no, oh no?You're not listening
Oh, why should I talk to you?
Why should I understand?
Why should I follow through?Out of luck, out of time
Out of hopelessness
And sleepless nights aheadNot asking for this strange situation
Not asking for this trite vaccination
Not asking for this genius complication
Are you loving or leaving or lying
Or dying away, oh, oh, yeah, oh?You're not listening
Oh, not listening
You're not listening
So why should I talk, no?Out of luck, out of time
Out of hopelessnessNot asking for this strange situation
Not asking for this trite vaccination
Not asking for this genius complication
Are you loving or leaving or lying
Or dying away, oh, oh, oh?Oh, I've got to get the hell out of here
Get my shit off the ground, knock this place down
So far, far away, I just bleed don't ask me to repeatSo long
So, so long
Oh, so long, yeah
Oh no, oh
