

Drowning (face Down)

Saving Abel

Times before I've walked through
The valley below the sun
I've wondered endlessly
And waited for my time to come
I think I'm drowning
Can someone lend a hand?
Can someone save me?
'Cause I don't think I can
I've come too far to turn around
It's hard to reach for you when I'm lying face down
I carried my soul, I'm lost
I'm lost in a moment lying face down
Returning home I find myself
Wishing I was already gone
But how long does it take to find me
When I'm waiting for someone?
I think I'm drowning
Can someone lend a hand?
Can someone save me?
'Cause I don't think I can
I've come too far to turn around
It's hard to reach for you when I'm lying face down
I carried my soul, I'm lost
I'm lost in a moment lying face down
Ooh yeah!
I've come too far to turn around
It's hard to reach for you when I'm lying face down
I carried my soul, I'm lost
I'm lost in a moment lying, lying
I've come too far to turn around
I've come too far to turn around
Lost in a moment lying face down
