Every Second

Patrice

Every second you hold me you are safe with me
and every secret that you told me will stay with me
look into my eyes love you can not deny baby this is simple not complicated simple things are underated it is hated by those who fair it only real people can go near it girl you are more than just a lover you are my friend

i will be loving you untill the very end don't even bother to pretend listen what i am saying

and every secret that you told me
will stay with me

being alive is great you make it greater when the sky is grey you make it cleaner i will hold you so close it can't get no nearer when we make love you make the whole world hear us girl you are more than just a lover you are my friend
don't make sense to even bother to pretend listen what i am saying

and every secret that you told me
will stay with me
look into my eyes love you can not deny

This is love This is love all the way
All the way i am in love all the way

All the way i am in love all the way

and every secret that you told me
will stay with me
Look into my eyes
Love you can't deny
