

Heading for Tomorrow

Insania

[Music: H. Juhano. Lyrics: H. Juhano / D. Henriksson / N. Dahlin]Waiting for something to come and fulfill my dreams.

By taking away the days from my early years.[Bridge:]

Feels like I'm running through eternity.

Right now it's time to find the key.I'll take a ride on the wind, like a bird i'll spread my wings.

I will search for tomorrow, and the end of our time.

When i fly through the sky, might get little higher.

No one can save a world of this kind.I can't believe all the things I've seen in my dreams.

The future lies close, far away from insanity.[Bridge:]

Sometimes I wonder if I'll end up in heaven or hell.

I'll ask the old man, he will tell.I'll take a ride on the wind, like a bird i'll spread my wings.

I will search for tomorrow, and the end of our time.

When i fly through the sky, might get little higher.

No one can save a world of this kind.[Solo: Both / H. Juhano / N. Dahlin]I'll take a ride on the wind, like a bird i'll spread my wings.

I will search for tomorrow, and the end of our time.

When i fly through the sky, might get little higher.

No one can save a world of this kind.-ANYMORE !!!
