

Wasting Away

Dag Nasty

This is the voice of something to believe in a tattered flag, a change of a season everybody hooked on negativity won't you come along so many people full of disillusion it's time to re-think, make a new conclusion I'm wasting
I'm wasting away
you get one shot - what you gonna' do?
so here's a call from a voice to you and me let's take a break from yawning apathy turn on, tune off, use your energy, just answer a call where are you ever really going here? is the destination ever clear?
I'm wasting
I'm wasting away
you get one shot - what you gonna' do?
the answers they offered - they never touched me and until I find one, I'll never really be free so where's the voice of something to believe in a tattered flag, a change of the season? everybody adrift in negativity
won't you come along
I'm wasting
I'm wasting away
you get one shot - what you gonna' do?
you get one shot - what you gonna' do?
you get one shot - what you gonna' do?
