Heroes

Camel

Image of mine, are you just a myth?
Aiming for the stars and a need to exist
Singing your life to its final bar
Staging all the scenes to avoid who you areIdol of mine, will you lead me on?
Build for me the dreams that I'm longing to own
Make me secure, be my fallacy
You are all my world if for only today
And live forevermore, evermore, evermoreHeroes, I call for you
Legend to feed my heart and soul
Heroes, I cry for you
Legend will bleed your heart of soulHeroes, I call for you
Legend to feed my heart and soul
Heroes, I cry for you
Legend will bleed your heart of soul
