

Fixer

The Shadowboxers

Rage that builds like fire
You've flipped my switch on now
I'm shaking like a child
Cause you were cold and left somehow
And now I'm pushing petals
Or at least I wish I was
Cause then I'd know that somewhere
There is an edge I have not crossed yet I am a fixer
And a fix is what I need
I am a fixer
And your fix is killing me
I wish that you would listen
I'm spinning in my head
And I always knew the answers
I'm too wasted to begin I am a fixer
And a fix is what I need
I am a fixer
And your fix is killing me And your fix is killing me
And your fix is killing me, oh baby
Your fix is killing me I am a fixer
And a fix is what I need
I am a fixer
And your fix is killing me
I am a fixer
And a fix is what I need
I am a fixer
And your fix is killing me
