

In Scarlet Storm

David Zaffiro

I see you looking from a distance
And all your struggles from afar
Within your eyes I see resistance
I give you over to the storm
I can get us over, and now get out of the way ohh! Who are you, can you calm the sea make the wind obey
You question me, it will be you last
Your breast can save us from the angry storm and righteous power
Your temper's tied, your in the tempest.
Fear of the dreamer set you out.
Dream in the pain you have no rest
I long to hold you but I'm torn
Hell's fury burns, in Scarlet storm
It rolls it turns, in Scarlet Storm
The voices yearns, in Scarlet Storm
Hell's fury burns, in Scarlet Storm
Hell
Blood
Death
I cast my tears and walk upon the waters
And journey out beyond your reach
The crashing waves, are like the falling of your face
I take your hand and there is Peace, Peace, Peace
