

Last Chance for Love (Welcome 12" Remix)

Joi Cardwell

This is your last chance for love
Divine Heart Be Strong

You got the right stuff for sure
You kept your eyes closed for too long
Too wise too soon baby Hold on Cause is your last chance

To love me

After all that

weve been through

I gave you my heart

my soul and emotion

But that wasnt enough for you

So this time its

This time well

Your last chance for love
My nights have been long

Tossing and turning

Can I go on

You broke my heart

In a thousand ways

For once in my life

Now I can say
Cause is your last chance

To love me

After all that

weve been through

I gave you my love

My heart and devotion

But that wasnt enough for you

So this time its

This time well

Your last chance for love
Im willing to try

Im giving it all my might

With a little bit of help from heaven above

Maybe this time Ill find true love

Last chance for love
