In the valley of light there's dust
In the glory of pain there's life
In the belly's of pigs we rot
In the gullet or worms we dieThe engines turning and salvation's going down
And all I see and all I see is red
My stomachs burning and the venoms soaking in
And that's all i feel and all I feel is redIn the stories of time were lost
In the glories of rage we fly
On the shackles that bind there's rust
In the walking's of hell we dieThe engines turning and salvation's going down
And all I see and all I see is red
My stomachs burning and the knights just did me in
And that's all i know then all I know is redRed
Red

REDNeedles and pins needles and pins
Needles and pins needles and pins
Needles and pins needles and pins
Needles and pinsThe engines turning and salvation's going down
And all I see and all I see is red
My stomachs burning and the venom's soaking in
And that's all i know then all I know is redRed
Red
Its all red
