Good Riddance

try to restore the past discrimination try to restore the past male domination try to restore the past close-minded education try to restore the past now we all are labelled if you could hear what they say and what they promised me today what you get is what you see until there's nothing left for me we owe alot ot our founders christian values we owe alot ot our founders killing the natives we owe alot to our founders they gave us freedom of speech we owe alot to our founders and now it's all out of reach what's wrong? do you want to know? what's wrong? do you want to know? what's wrong? do you want to know? i know what's wrong and you ought to know
