

Don't Forget

Soldiers of Jah Army

It wasn't you, it's just the way we roll the dice and these cards will fall right in it wasn't you, it's just the timing and the place that's wrong and something is gone butbut don't you forget about the life that you talked about you cruise and you forgetting table's gotta leg to stand on, a life to hang on it's you that you deceive oh you that you deceive oh you that you deceiveIt wasn't you who put yourself in all these ways these never ending days and I know it's not you, cause i can see the fire blaze those same light rays andso don't you forget about the life that you talked about
oh you that you deceiveIt wasn't you, cause no one sees themselves at all the same as anybody else and it wasn't you, cause every little thing has changed but i know its never too latebut don't you forget about the life that we talked about you cruising by your dreams we all need a leg to stand on, a life to hang on a life to hang ondon't you forget about the life that you talked about your.. about your.. we all need a leg to stand on a life to hang on
