

slavery

Overthruster

I've given up everything 'till it seems so fucking wrong
I've always been tied to you, now the bond is fucking gone

 You're just a victim
 Of your own decisions
 And your desperation

Is like watching an accidentI reject the way you need
 To hurt yourself to get to me
 I will break away from you

My regret is knowing youYou've thrown away everything and you hope I sympathize
 It's kind of like slavery to a world of fucking lies

 You're not the victim
 Of your own addictions
 And your desperation

Now you won't get my sympathyThis feels like slavery
 This ends it all
 This feels like slavery
 This ends it all
