

Another Tragedy

Side Walk Slam

Wide open, you cut me down
Enough to make me fall and hit the ground
Eyes open to the lies that you have told
Your secret life starts slowly to unfold I'm feeling down, will I see you around?
Or am I left here to sit and waste away, in this town? I'm fading, I'm so jaded
Twenty two, but feeling I'm so old
Love's cheapened by the seeds that you have sown
Destroying everything that I have known I'm feeling down, will I see you around?
Or am I left here to sit and waste away, in this town?
