

Casualty

Marty Casey & Lovehammers

Nobody's safe round here no more
Drag this lonely boat from the shore
Cut the ropes that bind me, to save the ones behind me
Nobody's safe around here no more
No time to wait and see, I live this life for me
Rise and fall, climb the walls
Won't stop until I have it all
Persistence, resistance, one man can make a difference
The battles inside of me, the fight's begun but not yet won
And I won't become, one more casualty
The need to find my destiny
Drop my anchors, set me free
You don't know how it feels, till your hands on the wheel
Drop my anchors set me free
Rise and fall, climb the walls
Won't stop until I have it all
Persistence, resistance, one man can make a difference
The battles inside of me, the fight's begun but not yet won
And I won't become, one more casualty
Nobody says we're free
We're drifting through the questions
Swimming for the answers
Trying to keep my sanity, till I reach my destination, and bring you here with me
And I'll make you believe
I have control, but if I lose myself,
How can I save you?
Rise and fall, climb the walls
Won't stop until I have it all
Persistence, resistance, one man can make a difference
Rise and fall, climb the walls
Won't stop until I have it all
Persistence, resistance, one man can make a difference
The battles inside of me, the fight's begun but not yet won
And I won't become,
The fight's begun but not yet won
And I won't become,
One more casualty
